

Agreement

_____ (referred to below as the "First Party") and The Japanese Association in Thailand (referred to below as the "Second Party") agree to the following:

1. The First Party will, in regard to the presentation and ownership of the Second Party's membership, give special treatment in a certain part of its business enterprise (referred to below as the "Agreed Upon Special Treatment").
2. Details of the Agreed Upon Special Treatment will be determined in a separate document, as agreed upon by the First Party and the Second Party.
3. At the place of business, the First Party will present the membership insignia which is given to them by the Second Party. At the same time, both parties will be able to publicly announce the details of the Agreed Upon Special Treatment.
4. The details of the Agreed Upon Special Treatment may be changed by the First Party. In this case, however, the First Party will promptly notify the Second Party of the details of the change so that the changes can be announced to members of the Second Party at the place of business, etc.
5. The First Party may cancel the Agreed Upon Special Treatment by giving at least two months advance written notice to the Second Party and withdrawing from this agreement. In the event that the continuance of the Agreed Upon Special Treatment is deemed inappropriate due to the First Party's involvement in bankruptcy or criminal activity, the Second Party may withdraw from this agreement and request the cancellation of the Agreed Upon Special Treatment. In this case, the First Party will immediately stop the Agreed Upon Special Treatment and return and/or remove the membership insignia mentioned above in item 3.
6. The First Party will bear responsibility for solving problems and disputes related to the Agreed Upon Special Treatment. Furthermore, this responsibility will not be affected by withdrawal from this agreement.
7. The Agreed Upon Special Treatment will commence from ____/____/____.
8. When questions or doubts arise regarding items or decisions not addressed in this agreement, decisions and/or solutions will be made based on sincere mutual consultation by the First Party and the Second Party.
9. The First Party and the Second Party will each confirm the contents of this agreement, sign it, and keep one copy each.
