Welcome to “Corporate Support Membership” of Japanese Association in Thailand

Japanese Association in Thailand(JAT) would like to extend our gratitude for your interests of becoming “Corporate Support Membership” for our association.

JAT was established in 1913, one of the oldest and largest Japanese Association in oversea with more than 7,000 members in Thailand. We are providing various social activities for Japan-Thai relations, sending out information and magazine monthly, have 2 facilities & libraries, 30 groups of club activities, 11 clubs for school activities and various events targeting for Japanese living in Thailand, mostly in Bangkok. Mainly are expatriates who are working in Thailand and their family members and some long stayers.

We appreciate your company’s kind contribution and support to maintain various activities of Japanese Association as “Corporate Support Membership”.

Once you join this alliance, you will have special benefits for promoting or advertising your services to our membership through our monthly magazine, tied-up events, restaurant/shop promotion activities, so on.
